

Casino Fatale

On the banks of the River Seine in Paris is the Hotel D'Etoile, with a casino named the Casino Fatale. Rumour has it that the casino is connected to the mysterious underworld character "Mr X".

No one seems to know exactly who the elusive Mr X is, or what he looks like – and there are many people who would love to know. Among those trying to find Mr X are Interpol, the local police, the local organized crime family, and the agents of several countries in which Mr X is believed to operate.

Tonight, however, a charity auction is being held at Casino Fatale and it has drawn all sorts to the casino – playboys, starlets, maybe even a jewel thief... Who will you play?

Everyone invited to Casino Fatale is given a character. As they arrive the Events Manager welcomes them. Each character has goals and objectives that they must try to complete before the end of the evening. Everyone has their own goals – and not all the goals are compatible. If one person achieves their goals, another may fail!

The guests can form alliances, blackmail each other, steal items and casino chips and maybe even try to kill one another. Along the way they may uncover some of the secrets of Casino Fatale. Who is Mr X? Why should you be very careful with your jewellery? Who killed scientist Professor Havelott, and where are his plans for a nuclear device? Who is the 'Black Panther'? And is the casino really up for sale? Join us to find out more in Casino Fatale.

How does Casino Fatale work?

Casino Fatale has been written for 15 to 30 guests – plus a host and maybe an assistant host. The step-by-step guide explains which characters to omit should you have fewer than 30 guests (you do need at least 15, however). Here's how that works:

Number of guests	Male characters	Female characters	Characters that can be played by either sex
15	5	4	6
16	5	5	6
17	5	6	6
18	5	6	7
19	5	6	8
20	5	7	8
21	6	7	8
22	6	8	8
23	7	8	8
24	7	9	8
25	6	8	11
26	7	8	11
27	7	9	11
28	8	9	11
29	8	10	11
30	9	10	11

Note – if you have more guests, we have free extra characters for Casino Fatale available on our website.

Casino Fatale runs over the course of three or four hours and is particularly suited to a buffet meal. One person is the Events Manager, and acts as organizer and coordinator, responsible for making sure everything runs smoothly and that all the guests have the information they need.

Your guests will all be present at a charity auction held at the casino. They have their own goals and agendas, and how they choose to achieve those goals is entirely up to them. Casino Fatale is an evening of double-dealing, intrigue, secrets and even murder!

As the evening draws to a close, secrets will be out in the open and a mystery will have been solved. Then everyone has a chance to find out exactly what went on.

Where can I get Casino Fatale?

Casino Fatale is available from www.freeformgames.com. We accept all major payment methods.

When you purchase the game, you'll be taken to a page where you can download it right away. We will also email you a download link and password, so you can come back to the site and collect your game later if that's more convenient.

Can I play Casino Fatale with kids?

We don't recommend it – the subject matter, and the casino setting, make this murder mystery unsuitable for younger people. We recommend that it's suitable for adults (aged 18+) only.

What if I don't like Casino Fatale?

No product is perfect for everyone. We know that and you know that and that's why we offer a cast-iron, no quibble guarantee. If you're not completely satisfied with Casino Fatale, let us know within 30 days and we will refund you.

“Just to let you know what a fab time we had playing Casino Fatale this weekend – everyone was absolutely brilliant in their characters and the outfits donned by everyone were hysterical. As the host I was a little concerned how things would run, but I needn’t have been, it all ran really well. Will be definitely getting another one of your games!”
Kirsty Gwynne, United Kingdom

“Our Casino Fatale party was great – thanks so much for your help! This was the first murder mystery I’ve hosted so I was anxious that it go well – anyway, fantastic night, definitely going to do another one!”
Daniel Hesford, United Kingdom

“We used Casino Fatale as the evening entertainment for our staff holiday party. The game was played by 27 people, plus 2 hosts. All participants had to be ‘in character’ from the moment they walked into the party. Some of them became their characters a couple of days early! From all accounts, a good time was had by all. Takes a bit of organization – but it is well worth it. We did embellish with some real props – dollar store guns and knives (nail polish makes wonderful blood on a knife...); a bandage box became a first aid kit; a small vial filled with beads became poison; a ‘diamond’ pendant and an ‘emerald’ bracelet. A fun-filled evening of murder and intrigue! Thank you.”
Kathy Collier, Canada

“Casino Fatale was a great ice breaker and everyone enjoyed the fact that they chatted to all the guests including those that didn’t take part in the murder mystery. We hired 2 casino tables which gave a very authentic feel to the party. This ensured that all guests were entertained for the evening.”
Ann Hallam, United Kingdom

“We ran Casino Fatale for a Christmas party, and our guests are still talking about it a few months on!!”
Dorn Carran, United Kingdom

“We did Casino Fatale for my 18th and it was great fun! I was so lucky because we had unseasonably warm weather and decided to host most of it in the garden. We lit it up with lanterns and fairy lights and we really did feel like we were on the banks of the River Seine! There was lots of different side plots so everybody felt involved. It was cool to watch all the different stories unfold and everyone looked fabulous!”
Francesca Consiglio, United Kingdom

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL!

Hotel D'Etoile is having its best year ever. To celebrate, it is hosting a charity auction in aid of the local orphanage.

If you haven't already received your invitation then you won't be going, as the charity auction is strictly an invitation-only affair.

Eligible Bachelor Meets 'It' Girl

Alex Kirk has been crowned "Most Eligible Bachelor in Paris". He already has ladies flocking round him: how on earth will he fit his ego through the door now?

And the latest 'it' girl in town is Anna Upanova. She has already been invited to all the best parties in town, and is auctioning her services at the charity auction at Hotel D'Etoile, along with other local celebrities. Calm down, boys: she's auctioning her company for a drink at the bar, and that is all!

Success for Donovan Jones

The renowned local poet Donovan Jones has reaped the plaudits for his latest book My Town. It has sold over 30,000 copies, and has headed the bestseller lists for weeks.

X Marks the Spot

Persistent underworld rumours suggest that Mr X, the notorious master criminal who once kidnapped the entire island of Madeira, may be currently resident in our fair city of Paris. Please keep an eye open for anyone who looks particularly criminal, and report them to your trusted police or to Interpol!

The Black Panther Strikes Again

Another daring jewel snatch has occurred in our city! A large emerald bracelet was stolen from a Paris jeweller yesterday. It is reported to be worth over 200,000 Euros.

This is the latest in a series of jewel thefts by the notorious "Black Panther": most recently, a diamond ring lifted from a leading Parisian jeweller last week. Police are refusing to comment.

Award for Nuclear Scientist

Professor James Havelott, a British nuclear physicist, has been posthumously awarded the Paris Medal for achievements in science. Professor Havelott worked at the Centre for Advanced Nuclear Studies on the outskirts of Paris for nearly 15 years, until his murder earlier this month (his wife was also shot dead). His daughter Melissa accepted the award on his behalf.

Professor Havelott's assistant Ashley Bunsen said "There is no-one in this country who knew more about nuclear physics than the Professor: he is sorely missed. He really deserved this award, and I can't believe he isn't with us to accept the award in person."

Police still have no leads in the double murder.
